THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE S.ANANDA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.17978 of 2001

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed by the petitioner, seeking Writ of Mandamus, declaring the inaction of the respondents in investigating the matter, as illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional, and consequentially sought for direction to the respondents to entrust the matter to CBCID to enquire into the F.I.R.No.44 of 2000, on the file of P.S.Mangalhat and to take appropriate action.

It is stated by the petitioner that her deceased son was married to one Sheela Bai, and her son was working in a private Firm in security. During the marital life, he was blessed with two sons. It is stated that the petitioner's son and his wife used to pick up quarrels and were never in good terms. Allegations were made by the petitioner that her son's wife is responsible for the death of her son, though the death was shown as being by way of suicide. Therefore, a complaint was registered at her instance by the police. But, however, the same was not properly enquired into, therefore, the present writ petition.

A counter is filed on behalf of the respondents, stating that the complaint was enquired into and after completion of the enquiry, the enquiry report was even sent to the petitioner through the constable as well as through registered post. But, the petitioner refused to receive the same which was sent through the constable, and also the report sent through registered post was returned with an endorsement 'not claimed'.

At the time of hearing, it is represented by the learned Government Pleader that if the petitioner is not satisfied with the enquiry and the consequential report filed by the police before the concerned Court, it is open to the petitioner to file her objections. But, no relief could be granted in the present writ petition, as the enquiry was completed long back and report was also filed, which suggests that the death of petitioner's son is a suicidal death by hanging.

In view of the above facts and circumstances of the case, the writ petitioner is not entitled to any relief, as sought for.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
